are some few Holbrook citizens holding shares, is very good property, comprising of 800 acres of mineral land, with 300,000 tons of black magnesite ore in sight, that runs from 20 to 30 ounces of silver. The company is capitalized at 1,000,000 shares par value $1.00. The treasury has $20,000 in cash, and 68,000 shares of stock and $4,000 worth of merchandise in store with no debts.—Banker and Miner of Everybody returned from the Moqui Snake dance Friday, and were well pleased with the sight they witnessed.

They report one Indian as getting bitten by a rattlesnake but the snake could not poison him as the remedy they have is more powerful than a snake-bite.
The following were out from this place: Mr. and Mrs. H. B.
Smith, Mrs. Rencher, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Julius Wetzler, Henry Kempenich, Fred Kieber, Dr.
Hansen, Paul Kempenich, Jack Smith, Chas. Fries, M. Salsman, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Keller and Jud Lathrope, besides others that we did not learn the names of.

One of our floating aristocracy who had been in our midst but one month as night operator in the Santa Fe depot, grew tired of the small salary he was drawing and in a most dignified manner notified the company of his withdrawal from such small institutions. Having put in the time by strolling around our town until his check came, when he immediately proceeded to take in a poker game, but not being successful in his new enterprise, went on west to Winslow, where he could have larger games to indulge in and has not been seen since. This handsome black eyed boy had been trusted by our honest people of Holbrook, to the amount of $25 for board and $8 for room rent, of which in his estimation was too small to bother with, so did not pay either. He had been getting mail at this place under the name of Edward D. Sothorn, but not wishing our good people to get too well acquainted with his proud self, introduced himself as M. L. Mathis. Now we do not know where this "Cholly" went to but will wager that he and the gazable that stole a hat, belonging to the scribe of this paper, are going the same direction.
